History

With insecure steps and excited hearts, seventy-four students entered the Freshmen class in September, 1956. We had high ambitions and wonderful plans for the year, but soon found out it was "easier said than done". Our homeroom teachers were Mr. Gillespie, Mr. Dennehy, and Mr. Walker. With Garnett Hobson as our president, we, as freshmen, started on our high school career. Other officers were Dawn Hobson, secretary; Tommy Lawrence, vice-president; and Edward Davis, treasurer.

With an enrollment of sixty-two, we entered the Sophomore class under the direction of Mrs. Coram and Mr. Stanley. This year was the usual high school pattern. Officers for this year were Tommy Lawrence, president; Judy Cline, secretary; W. G. Stinson, vice-president; and Edward Davis, treasurer.

By the time we were Juniors, there were only fifty-eight members of our class. One of the highlights of our Junior year was our play, Introducing Susan, directed by Mr. Meyers. After much hard work, the Juniors were rewarded in presenting a very successful play. The most outstanding feature of our Junior year was our Junior-Senior Banquet and especially our Prom which was a Boonville High School "first". For our theme we used Southern Plantation. Miss Betty Jo Webb was elected our "Homecoming Queen". Carolyn Baity received the Most Valuable Player award in the Yadkin County Tournament. Mable Steele, Martha Reece, Carolyn Baity, and Garnett Hobson were named All-County players. Miss Beulah Reece and Mrs. Anita Reece were our homeroom teachers. Our Junior class officers were Tommy Lawrence, president; Scarlett Brown, secretary; Jimmy Walker, vice-president; and W. G. Stinson, treasurer.

Under the guidance of Miss Day and Mr. Meyers, fifty-three students started on their Senior year. Early in the fall we received our class rings which gave us a feeling of seniority. Several of our members were leaders on the Student Council and Annual Staff. We elected Charlene Wiseman and Phil Vestal for our mascots. Miss Sue Reece was elected "Homecoming Queen". Edward Davis reigned as "Mr. Boonville High". We were looking forward to our trip to Washington and New York in the spring very much. We elected Jimmy Walker, president; Brenda Hobson, secretary-treasurer; and Rockie Lineberry, vice-president for our officers.

As our high school days at BHS come to a close, we look back over the four wonderful years with a feeling of happiness, and yet, we are also a little sad. We leave BHS with high hopes for the future and the desire to be a credit to our parents, our teachers, and our friends.

HISTORIAN MARY REECE

Prophecy

I, Dawn Hobson, having been elected senior class prophet, am about to look into the future and see what fate will have been with out class ten years from now.

First of all, I see myself as a captain with the Air Force.

Frances Adams is now married, I see, and doing quite well as a housewife.

Larry Adams has taken over Rex White's place on the race track.

Roy Adams has taken over his father-in-law's milk route.

Carolyn Baity is now teaching and coaching girls' basketball at Reynolds High School.

Scarlett Brown is now teaching school in one of Yadkin County's new consolidated high schools.

Franklin Caudle is playing basketball for the New York Knickerbockers.

Winda Caudle is still running around trying to find that certain someone.

Judy Cline and Betty Jo Webb have advanced in their field and are now managing the Washington Redskins.

Mary Lou Collins has found out that all the monkeys aren't in the zoo.

Tony Comer is now a professor at Wake Forest College.

Edward Davis is associated with Bryant's Repair Shop in more ways than one.

Ellen Davis is still trying to make up her mind--and someone else's.

Novella Davis is still wandering around looking at the boys.

Doris Day Wilkins is now a contented housewife and mother.

I see C. W. Driver as a "Dandee" man.

Shirley Dudley is married and trying to keep up with the "Sprinkles."

Judy Evans is still trying to memorize speeches.

Cynthia Faw has now taken over B. E. Faw and sons.

Harvison Hemric is still living it up and having a good time.

Wanda Hinshaw is now working with Piedmont Airlines as an airline stewardess.

Brenda Hobson spends most of her time in a dark room --as a laboratory technician.

Garnett Hobson has decided it is too expensive to be going to Jonesville so much and now he is living there.

J. D. Hobson has decided he likes feeding chickens better than milking cows.

Benny Holcomb and Tommy Holcomb are now playing tackle for the Washington Redskins.

Peggy Huff is now counting the "Dayes".

Bobby Jenkins is owner and operator of Boonville's Pool Room.

Tommy Jenkins and James Trivette are still cleaning up Mr. Walker's shop trying to get good grades.

Helen Kittrell Mendenhall wills her love for school and keeping house to anyone who can do it.

Tommy Lawrence is head mechanic at Moxley's Garage.

Rocky Lineberry is living at Nebo and working at Western Electric.

Marilyn Mathis is fulfilling her dream of being a good housewife and mother.

Pat Mathis is now settled down and happy as ever.

Betty Parker Gwynn is now singing with the Metropolitan Opera.

Carroll Pendry is farming and doing quite well at it, I see.

Martha Reece has finally found someone to take the place of her teddy bear.

Mary Reece is the first woman to be president of the Boonville Bank.

Sue Reece is now working as a secretary at Western Electric.

Tommy Reece is now owner and operator of Reece Supermarket.

I see Frances Shore married and working at Hanes Hosiery Mill.

Opal Snow and Frances Wilhelm are now settled down to the quiet lives of old maids.

I see Mable Steele playing basketball with the Hanes Hosiery team.

W. G. Stinson is working for the Highway Department and has finally succeeded in having the Lime Rock Circle paved.

Melva Taylor is still changing her mind about whether to marry or not.

Jimmy Walker is now a professor at State College. By the way, he's married now.

Fred Wilhelm has decided he likes to live down at Richmond Hill.

Lucille Wishon Halbrook's days are still Sonny and bright.

Sammy:
I have enjoyed being in your room this year. Best of luck in the future to the best pest in the west.

Best Wishes to you, Sammy.
